Locations for events

Fine food and wine within easy reach

Masía Mas Rabell

Mas Rabell is a 14th-century Catalan masía, or traditional farmhouse, in the very heart of the Penedès, not far from Barcelona. A magical, rustic place nestled amid vineyards and nature, perfect for hosting corporate events, celebrations, and dream weddings.

The masía has a big garden and three interior rooms with plenty of sunlight, capable of accommodating different group sizes and all kinds of events. Our cuisine is based on locally sourced ingredients from our organic estate garden, with seasonally inspired menus that change according to the time of year.

Our curated selection of wines completes the celebration. At Mas Rabell, we are delighted to advise you on the best wine and food pairings to surprise every palate.

Monastrell Room

A welcoming rural space, ideal for celebrations built around a delightful traditional food and wine experience.

Parellada Room

A large hall with magnificent views and direct access to the garden. Sunlight streams through the tall windows, brightening a perfect space for hosting big banquets and celebrations.

Details
